I'm in Riga Latvia - amazing girls! Many blondes w great bodies!!! [REDACTED] emailed me saying you "killed her" w your words (calling her silly, etc). She is alone this last week in NY and has lost $ on this trip. She is desperate for cash. I have been working on her, she agreed w me that posing in lingerie is part of her job and she told me she would have no problem to do that w you but she doesn't have the courage to propose it herself. I know it doesn't seem like much but it's a step. She plans on coming back to NY so I'm thinking she could be an ongoing project. For me it's a great experiment, taking a girl who hadn't been w a guy until she was 23 (!) and then getting her to this point...I think you're in a good position, because she is a drama queen and in the past she has said similar things ("jeffrey killed me w his words") and then you would call her the next day and she would be happy. She is sufficiently confused and I think you can get some mileage out of this :)

Otherwise hope all is fine w you...will keep you updated on my travels, Tallin Estonia is next...
