Subject: hi

Erik is having a one man show in London at the Hannah Barry Gallery. The show opens on June 21st but today someone bought all 5 of the paintings just from seeing photos of the work. If you're in London, try to stop by. I'd like you and Erik to get to know each other. My kitchen renovation was completed today and I love it! The only thing that I couldn't do is the backsplash, but I hope to get it done in the near future.

Enjoy your day

Love,
