Good morning Sarah,

Yes we have a haze of smoke around us from the Los Alamos fire and also the Arizona fire(Wallow Fire) and the Santa Fe fire (Pacheco Canyon Fire). Sometimes the haze burns off but it is pretty thick in the mornings.

This morning at 5 it smelled like there was a fire in the chimney burning.

It seems to affect our eyes and nose and throat. Of course it is liveable but I don't know how it will affect JE.

I can keep you posted and let you know if it lets up and gives any relief by early next week.

Wendy
