Are you in NY right now? JB is kindly being my agent in many respects, but maybe we should try to talk directly sometime about my game plan for world domination (aka, my research agenda) and see if it really overlaps with something that you might be interested in and whether a place like this (<http://uchv.princeton.edu/>) is something you could take, even ironically. Sadly, I leave Sunday. I can come back anytime, though. And there's always Skype.

I am also awaiting news about a UK Newton Fellowship (word to come down in October) and the old fashioned professor route (some also open at Princeton, but I suspect Martin's students are going to get them). Any advice you might have is seriously appreciated. I think I'll stay away from wearing sweatpants for an interview, though.

Shpritz, shpritz.

Money. Too bad you're in every and no position to write the tome "Vagina Economics". It's such a great title. The world might never know it.
