JE,

David Brooks is eager to attend the EDGE Master Class Jul 15-17, but he needs a plane ride to do it ...

I wrote back to mention that several of the attendees fly in private jets and his response; ..."If per chance somebody is flying via DC, in that case I'd be happy to go."

It's a very good thing that the most influential columnist in America is pushing science and scientists on a regular basis. Here his NYT column today in which he talks about Masrtin Nowak, Jonathan Haidt, among others:
http://www.nytimes.com/2011/05/17/opinion/17brooks.html?\_r=1&partner=rss&emc=rss. It's also important (to me, at least) that he's become EDGE's biggest fan and booster.

So if it's a possibility for you, it would involve a one-way trip, getting David from DC to SFO or Napa, Friday Jul 15 after NewsHour. (The weekend begins with a Friday dinner but the classes begin Saturday morning).

Let me know.

Best,

JB
