remote bandwidth tests seem to indicate the network is very slow (slower than it has been at this exact moment) will continue to check and report a speakeasy result

.... so slow it could be causing the ATV error or the Apple TV configuration is not correct or optimized at this time.

what location on the island are these ?s about also the universla remote that is there is terribl.. keys are small and not well lit.. who chose?

Bandwidth is still on an ATT multi bonded time table still advise iphone data plan on island for you. but a real solution is still a few months out based on my last info from jermaine. Jermaine any news???
