Subject: Tomorrow

Hey hey! The bank is now closed, would you like me to come to the house with the cash tomorrow am 1st thing? And I think we figured the out the bathroom tiles!! It's the link to the restoration hardware lighting I sent. Light grey hand painted (for slight color variation) subway tiles! I'll check out tile places tomorrow if that's okay and kitchen stuff. [REDACTED] cabinet/kitchen design is dead on. The company did a great job and it's the same layout. A duplicate in white would be nice. (with the gray subway tiles as the back splash to tie in with bathroom) Just a thought. I'll put a spread sheet of costs together too to track/budget before anything is done. Early tomorrow? :)
