hi jeffrey,

i dont know if you see the pink room.. its a little intense in some parts of the day(afternoon) because the light from outside i guess, but i think its going to look good in the end.

i dint finish it yet, i just did three coats of venetian plaster pink half of the room. everything will be done in like 3-4 days of work. i did the small hallway already.

michael has to do all the wood paint in the pink room and that small hallway. he will be done probably in 2 days of work.

beside this, rich came today and he said that nobody is working tomorrow because of the eastern thing.

is it ok if we dont work tomorrow(friday) too?

thank you,

ion
