Dear Jonathan,

I have only just now received your emails regarding your terrifying diagnosis. I am very sorry you have a tumour and I pray that it does not grow. I know that you have access to the best doctors, and there are so many people who love you. Somers must be so worried.

Thank you very much for the beautiful earrings that Noreen gave to my mother on Valentines Day. Your note really touched me and I feel the same way. I have been hesitant to be in touch with you, even though the rudeness of not acknowledging your beautiful gesture made me feel awkward and guilty. I wanted to thank you but at the same time it is extremely painful for me to be in touch with you.

I wish you health and happiness.

Elizabeth
