I belive i have stood by you for two years, while you were down, I gave you flying lessons a place to live and money, did i nag you , you have needed help for years, and i have been there, I asked if you had a solution , your only answer was that i should fix it, because thought i tell you i haven;t found a solution , you tell me i can , but imply i am lying

I am ill. If I was on a edge before, yesterday you pushed me over.
My mistake for agreeing to see you, I thought you were a friend coming to help. Instead you said things like 'you don't deserve to be treated well', 'I think you are fucked' and 'I can have you deported.'

It's tough to stand by and help someone when they are down & you believe they did it to themselves, isn't it? It takes discipline, effort, kindness and sacrifice. Oh wait - I know. I did it for you when nobody else could - when everyone else left you. Imagine how you would have felt had I instead said good luck, you are fucked, you don't deserve to be treated any better and maybe you should have though about consequences when you were getting those massages. What kind of a person would I have to be to do that..

Remember that's what came out of your mouth when I needed help.

I am sending over some of your stuff I had here.
