Hello [REDACTED],

I enjoyed spending time with you and "sharing". Only you can decide your future..... I wish I could tell you what to do, but that would not be correct. I guess that every action we take in life does have the potential ability to define our future....rather frightening when we think about it that way. Spend some time alone and think about your life, your dreams, your passions...hopefully you will know what you need to do. There are no "perfect" answers in life....not that easy...ever.... All I can say is that we each get one life....live it to its fullest and listen to your heart and your head. You will know... warmly, Lori

Dear Mrs. Fink,

I really appreciate all the time you spent with me!

As I have told you this procedure is very difficult for me. My parents are willing to take the responsibility and I am concerned this will physically and emotionally have effect on me for the rest of my life. Are you sure this is the right thing for me to do?

I am looking forward to spending the holidays with your family. I take comfort as you said this would enable Josh and I to build our future on a more solid foundation.

Kind regards, [REDACTED]
