hi Jeffrey.

how are you? i've been thinking about you a lot lately. i started working at an ophthalmologist's office a couple weeks ago and [REDACTED], from your office, came in a couple times. small world. or small upper east side at least. i started thinking about you just before then because I have never been sure if it was wrong to continue to ask you for help when I have needed it and these thoughts have been building lately. for some reason, after I saw [REDACTED] I've been overwhelmed with guilt for asking for donations for the dance school and for the many other times I've come to you asking for assistance. have i crossed lines in asking you for help?

i miss you and hope you're well.

big hugs,
