Jack,

I putter about on the computer but so far nothing new on Cara.

I have found FBI 302 reports she wrote on 7/96 as part of the investigation of the crash of TWA 800. She was living in Brooklyn Heights at the time. This tracks to her move to Alexandria, VA in 2001, to Chicago in 2003 and to Los Angeles in 2006.

She sells out in Los Angeles in 8/08 and moves to Pembroke Pines, joins the Florida Bar in 5/09, hooks up with RRA and here we are.

There is still no indication of any activity as an attorney in this area and we are about 18 months on from the fall of RRA.

An ex-FBI agent in her mid-40's with a law degree from a less than well regarded law school, TSU, and RRA on her resume is not exactly a hot item. Attorneys are out work in large numbers and firms like Adorno Yoss are falling apart.

The real question remains why she left the FBI. Standard retirement from the bureau at the basic benefit level requires 50 YOA and 20 years service, she is only 44 now.

I have spoken to several people who were at RRA but none even recalled her name.
