I was just checking train times to Long Island Saturday and I really hate to bother you. If at all possible may I please keep my saturday flight home.

I have a family reunion saturday that I'd really like to make it to. It starts at 3 and I can catch the tail end of it if I leave on that flight.

I don't want to complicate anything, if its any problem at all then I will keep to leaving at 4 with you no sweat. Just thought I would run it buy you.

Thank you
Francis
