I saw Daniel yesterday evening he was dinning alone and when he saw me he was like very kind and all... I fell very incomfortable but I stay on my position like rock, to observe his way he talk to me, he never look into my eyes when he explain his life, his projects and the reasons why he stop talking to me, at any moment he was talking with precisions.

He ask me for a drink and I said that i have to go home

He said that he had some news from me by you, and he invite me to call him for talking about the new bouddhist thing he found...

Any way I don't want to bother you with that and I know that we don't talk a lot seriously because my english sounds like shit but I wanted you to know that, you are the only persone I can talk with about this and all of this you know Daniel more that I know him.

For the first time, maybe because I grow up a little more, I feel like Daniel is a very weird person and that I have to stay away from him.

But you know what I really want to see him one more time when I will have some time (you know that I am a very busy girl haha) to know more because I am always like that when it's forbbidden or risky I want to go ^^*

or maybe I am just making a psycko...

i don't know :)

send you hot sexy kisses ;)
