I'm back from my vacation. It felt good to get away. I love walking around Paris, and I hope to go back for Erik's art opening in September at the Almine Rech Gallery. I just wanted to thank you again for being such a good friend and trying to solve my problem with [REDACTED]. Sometimes old friendships echo sibling relationships and past resentments tend to surface in unexpected ways. We did have another argument during the trip and we ended up taking separate rooms, but it all worked out in the end.

Love,
