Hi Jeffrey, I tried to call you the other day, knowing that you are in Paris. I was on my way from Luxembourg to Strasbourg. Now, I am leaving for Budapest and then back to Strasbourg, but only for half a day before I have to go to Moscow on a very short notice because of the new laws that has been launched there which can restrict a very important principle, namelyg freedom of assembly. After that I am going to Norway for some sommer holidays. I would have loved to see you. Terje and I spoke about you when we were in Luxembourg, agreeing that you are a fabulous person, easy and at the same time demanding to be together with.
Thorbjørn
