Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to be home to receive my order?

Most of our shipments have valuable items, so our carriers need a signature when they deliver. DHL Global Mail and United States Postal Service, however, don't require a signature. If our carriers can't deliver after three attempts, they'll need to return the package to Apple.

For more information about Apple's delivery options, visit online Help.

How do I change or track my order?

Visit online Order Status for the latest order and shipment details. To review more information about shipping, changing your order, or returns, please visit online Help.
