Hi Jeffrey,

This is a bit of a shot in the dark, but I was wondering if you have any connection to Tom Cruise or director Doug Liman. I recently put myself on tape for his new film "All You Need Is Kill." The audition tape was sent to casting, which is based out of London, and casting sent it on to Mr. Liman - the film's director - and the producers. The management firm that represents me is producing the film, and I'm doing my best to get the main players on the project to approve me, but it seems like misters Liman and Cruise have final say. Again, I know this is a shot in the dark, but you seem to have some magic behind you so I thought I'd ask. Please find the link to the audition tape below.

All the best,

Delon
