karem,, lets julian research your doing a spac. if you did a europe based spac, investors could subscribe for shares,, pay in triggered installments. therefore we are not sitting having to mangle thier cash, the investments would be transparant. your participation would be transparant.. investors could keep it on their books as markatible securites,, easily valued, and in some cases meet investment restrictions on large funds. (no private funds etc) . , if sucessful you could buy other less sucessful investments for paper. . lets examine this alternaitive. what are your travel plans after. ? it would be the first really public africa fund, situation in dakar would be smoother , (public info)???
