Someone needs to point out that you should reward kindness and loyalty instead of aggression and bad behavior. Unfortunately that doesn't happen in Jeffreyland. Being loyal and supportive for seven years, through hell and high water, set me back in both personal and professional life and left me and [REDACTED] publicly embarrassed for the rest of our lives. It is disappointing that you continue to focus on yourself instead of doing everything to fix and make up for the damage you caused. You make bad decisions and greatly reward those who use, blackmail and betray you, or can be used for sex; Ghislaine, your brother, hookers & Russians.. You are surprised every time people around you behave badly, but what behavior do you think you encourage? I think you need to realize that, and I suggest you rethink your priorities and try being kind and showing appreciation to those who deserve it, that's all...

I am glad to see you managed to find a way to improve your reputation in the press. Your concern and charitable contributions are touching...
You forgot about everyone else your actions affected and the promises you made to fix it, but you clearly make an effort to improve your own image with contributions you can parade in the press. Congratulations.
I suppose the few people who actually cared enough to put their lives and reputation on the line for you can fend for themselves. I will never understand your priorities...

Have a nice trip.
