Ha, that's the next level up. For that I might need a couple extra flight hours.
But when I'm better than every pilot that comes through, I'll wear sweatpants with my initials on...

I usually dress down and try to blend in when it comes to flight training but I think now I have earned my right to wear a skirt.
It gives me great pleasure to fly single engine emergencies and land a plane after losing hydraulics to all flight controls, thrust reversers and spoilers nicely on the centerline while wearing this.
