I will check what happened, but thought you had been sent this some time ago.

Are you coming to London?

Would you like to see Ch Fontaine L'Abbe?

Jeffrey,
I am in Normandy, staying with Venetia Wimborne at her stunning Chateau Fontaine l'Abbe.

I know that I mentioned some time ago that she was selling it. However, you should know the price has now dropped significantly to Euros 5M (from an original asking price of 10).

The difference between this Chateau and most of the others on the market is that her late husband literally rebuilt it from the ground up in the early '90s. So all wiring, plumbing, foundations etc (the normal curse of buying an old property) are in first class condtion. All the bedrooms are en suite and there is also a lift.

It has one more significant difference in that Venetia has planted the most beautiful 'English' garden which has now matured to perfection.

It just might be worth you having a look when you are next in France. I would be more than happy to arrange this for you.

As ever,

Mark
