Jeffrey,

I will review and evaluate this cost for hanger,. I was only pre vied to cost of hanger door modification and cost of hanger floor paint, which I was directly involved in negotiating , all upgrades to bathroom and bedroom construction Brice informed me that he and Tom presented cost to you for approval. my quick review of this invoice indicates items and pricing out of control, which is most likely an on going problem with LSJ construction,. I will work this with Rich and get you answers asap,.

I travel to Savannah, GA today and will fly the Bell 430 to the Toy store tomorrow,. very very excited!

thank you,
Larry
