Subject: Jee's apartment

Sam – we have occupied Jeffery's apartment for last several months. We initially promised him that we will use it for only a short period of time. It is now time that we move on. In matter of fact, I am afraid that we overstayed ;)

As [REDACTED] mentioned, there is some construction in the building [REDACTED] current apartment is wanted by her neighbors and there is a shortage of apartments in the building. Therefore, please let's plan to move out within next two week or so.

Jee – THANK YOU SO MUCH for all of your help and support. You have always been there when we needed!!!

Jee - please let me know if [REDACTED] needs apartment sooner. We can move before that time.

Thank you

Boris
