In all my emails I've been talking about 'advice with business'. That was not a solicitation of generalized opinions about my life. I'm sorry if that wasn't clear. I actually hoped to talk to you about specific options, ideas and ways of accomplishing them. All I've been asking so far was - would you be willing to advise/ help/ guide me with that?. You came back right away with an aggressive 'move and get a job' and kept repeating it, disregarding each mention of business guidance. I never got to talk to you about specific questions.

PS: yes I am in Europe, my phone is roaming. I haven't been using it

Consistent - this is your email from March 8: "re ny im not suggesting you move from ny , , I heard you loud and clear but would not be unhappy if you decide to leave 66 th st."

Best - ...you are suggesting a 'job' instead of a career or help with a business that could actually offer some financial independence?

Advice - "move out and get a job" sounds more like a punishment. For what, I really don't know...

And you still have not asked me one question about what I actually wanted to do. I asked you for specific advice with my company. You have no information about it and you are throwing unrelated and unsolicited opinions at me. This is nothing but a lazy generalized statement and it's really not helpful.
Thanks
