Jeffrey!!

How are you? will you be in Paris in July ? I try to come, need to work more for it..

I miss talking to you and hearing your reactions, opinions, swimming at Ritz! here I have a nice pool+gym in the office where i work, so i keep in shape.. only 52 kilos now, very skinny, in Paris I was 58..

I read biographies of the world most powerful women and I want to be one of them, like Christine Lagarde, Hillary Clinton or Gail Kelly. They all studied and worked a lot. Chrisitne is a bright lawyer. I am working on becoming one but not sure how to stand out yet. At Clifford I was not given many responsibilities, the only big thing I have actually done was a 10 pages Memorandum for the client in response to the European Court's decision but they never told me what happened with my draft. I will try to be the best intern in Singaporean Allen & Gledhill (<http://www.gledhill.com.sg>) when I am there, soon. At the moment I try to find a summer clerkship in Sydney law firm, but apparently they do not like students from overseas :/

hope you are doing great, and Svetlana and your beautiful assistants too. Can I work as your assistant too some time ?

Maria
