Agree 100%

Will tell you more.

Just talked to Mette – she unfortunately can't meet you as she gets in Sunday late night. She has already full Monday and Met gala.

On Tuesday she leaves for LA. Also she has some official work in NYC.

I am meeting her in LA on Wednesday and we are going together to London.

I am trying to convince her to join us in Vienna and that she and fly together to SFO on Sunday from Vienna.

She is sending you her best regards

resI think you are working against your inetersts.. here bill has someone who works 20 hrs a day,, is willing to take on more, and doesn't require more pay. you are traingin him to take you for granted and expecting him to appreciate you after the fact. . wishful thinking. I think your proposal should be as a fair split, he should get the 20% of the net. and allocate 30-40 million from larsen. . otherwise you can point out that even if you were to get a 100% return on the 10 million, over 4 years. . an unlikely result, you would end up with less than 1.5 ,million after tax after 4 years,,, not fair
