Hello dear
have you met with [REDACTED] yet?

I found a job in Paris to work before my law school starts. I have to stand and say "hi" at Galeries Lafayette.. it is so tiring and payed 30 times less per hour than what I was earning in Sydney. SO crazy in this French society...people are paid ridiculous wages

May you give me the contacts of your Latvian friend who does massages for you? I would like to ask her how to better advertise the massage services in Paris.

Thanks in advance
Kiss
