Re could Botstein do noon tomorrow: its a delicate situation...president Botstein has a 1:00 downtown that involves 5 other pp so he cannot change this. However he does not want this to be a deal breaker for your meeting. It is important that he sees you and it has been difficult coordinating a day/time that would work for you both. His first choice,if possible, would be to keep 11:00, BUT 11:30 would work also. 12:00 would be cutting it close. I was asked to reiterate he truly does not want this meeting to cancel.

What time should I confirm you would like Botstein to come tomorrow?
