How goes it for you? In LA visiting Aliza(my one and only daughter). Remember you telling me to mention Murray Koppleman when I stayed at the Beverly Hills Hotel 25 years ago? I'm here looking for Murray, alas not to be found. Would you be interested in seeing a few really impressive companies that we are raising money for? I hesitate bringing it up to you as I don't know what you are doing. No pressure, just asking.
