To Noam with concrete ideas.

I think they will make you smile a little mostly because we've been talking about them for years.

The answers are knowable and I think this very disconnected but brilliant lab is the place to start - and far enough away from the world of Gates and the NIH that there might be a shot at quickly figuring things out.

What do you think?

Am a little worried about the regional political escalations lately but won't let that stop me.

Whatcha think?

12-18 months to figure one of these out and knock it out of the park. Then we go from there.
