18 months is always a period of turbulence in romantic relationships. we must be very careful, not dissimilar to the airplane turbulence. . In the past months, i did things I despised , detested or revolted me , with the knowledge that in the end , it was in order to get things done for you. I weighed your happiness , (it always wins) , with my discomfort. i chose every single time your happiness, These very things that you now suggest will cause you to lose affection, emotion, attachment. I swallowed my distaste and accepted that in the end , you will give me that big wide thrilled smile.
