Subject: tomorrow

Jeffrey,

I hadn't realised my lunch with George Osborne is in the countryside tomorrow, so the earliest flight I can take lands at 745pm.

I realise that by the time one gets to you, it would be close to 9pm and that may be too late.....

Just wanted to double check and if indeed it is too late, when are you next in New York/ Paris/ anywhere other than the island?

Best wishes,

Ian
