re a walk or a coffee with Woody on Sunday or Monday:

Woody is in the midst of editing his new movie and requests you to please check in on monday morning (he will get in at 9AM) to see if this works. I don't think the weekend works for him but I'll be here to ask again on Monday.

(I will for sure check in on Monday morning with Woody's assistant ...who is now named Sam...I think she (Sam) is just stepping in for kathryn for a bit)
