Josh, i love you very much.. these back and forth emails are silly. -- you dangle , my greatest wish marriage to you by writing" i am seriously thinking about it ", you ignore my acceptance, and true willingness to move foward , instead of working out details,of how we can build a great life together you continue to merely ask about my daily activities. . I think you are being severly unfair and at least until today can find little reason to delay to alter my current plans and my departure from Paris
