Got your voicemail - Amazing!

I actually said that to him but I didn't think it was a strong point because - why should he care how I feel... But today he called and said the exact same thing you suggested; He said good call on saying no, and that I don't have to worry about it at the moment because he thinks it's important for me to know that he wants to work with me because he thinks I'm smart and can handle the job, not because he likes me... I thought that was pretty nice.

I'll tell you more, and about the deal offer, over the phone.

Thank you
