Ive given it a great deal of thought. I would like you to succeed in life. You have made many choices. some good some bad. like everyone else. Your expectations of what you are owed by life , by me and ny others unfortunately does not square with reality . From expecting your parents to take care of your dog indefeitley while it shit on the floor, or for me to do the same thing while you did. , has in the past resulted in you not speaking to the parents and in our case , driving a wedge between us.
