I hope yesterday was helpful towards reaching the polio goal. I will do what I can. (it is not my expertise). On raising another 20- 50 billion. The mantra to his partners, would be we -what can we do to help YOU. , not merely can you help us. an example . Bill could give 20m now for every 100m pledged on death. they get their current funding for their projects and bill gets 4--5 times the amount for every dollar given . we can structure it so that his "Partners get recognition and decuction today, their projects funded currently and bill receives a massive amount on their death. That 's just one structural idea out of many, -I realize he is shy but respect his personal estate and tax planning, I would be happy to review it, no fee (i recognize the sensitivity). AS an extra bonus he should be able l to severely minimize his current taxes , if any, but needs to seriously reflect on how to properly protect his kids. I would , if he chose sit with he and Melinda and ask some of the more appropriate questions. family bank, childs payout schedule. , investment plan, have a limited menu. (index fund, bond fund , etc) distribution hurdles. I recognize that his calendar is full , but i suggest a trip to the ranch or island where we could devote a full day or two on his family plan the way he now dedicates his time to polio.
