In the past we repaired Bentley at Manhattan Motorcars (Tony). We can ask Jojo to get an alternative quote from CHANDER Auto repair shop as it is a mechanical problem and the store was recommended as the best Bentley mechanical repair place by a Brooklyn Bentley electronic repair shop. The initial cost for evaluation by Manhattan Motorcars is $189 v Chander $95 per hour.
Please advise,

Thank you,

Rich and Bella,
JoJo contacted me today advising that Bentley in NY has several lights on drivers dashboard illuminated, such as Coolant level light and check engine light.
please advise JOJO where he should have car repaired. Bella handled this last time car was in need of service.
