Law firms in uk say she was receptionist. Ucl confirmed a pass degree with minimum grades. They cant fail someone based just on their grammar accoring to how masters work in this country.

She was challenged on her unresponsiveness towards team/clients, english proficiency of a second-grade student, and not doing homework. Her counterargument was that she is not being paid. No passion or hunger to make it. We wont pursue any further with her and she made me waste lots of time and money. I wouldnt hire to make photocopies, she should appeal to generosity of a rich guy or be a pro (if shes not already.....as i believe shes been bluffing as being cold with people...) Psychologically, i think she experienced some trauma in eastern europe
