Hi Jeffrey..

Thanks again for taking the time to talk (and for the lunch). You looked good... and seemed relaxed.

I'm absolutely torn by the situation. I think the idea is good and the rest of the team is A+ (you met Kerrey -- he's really terrific.. so are the three other senior people). I've met with the head guy at Benchmark, and they are very positive about the project ... and so was the managing director of the Mayfield Fund (which turned them down for internal reasons -- but he was nevertheless very high on the idea). And, of course, I can't stand my day job.

I heard what you said and will sleep on it. (Keep in mind my ultimate objective, which is to get back to the east ASAP while at the same time keeping Robin happy.)

Take good care, s.
