I think I will maybe move back to [REDACTED] tomorrow.

I want everything to be perfect with the house and your stay next week. If I am back at [REDACTED] this will enable Lyn and Jojo to take the weekend off and be fresh for my YOU next week.

The girls will be back in the building and Manu is across the street and has offered help.

The food delivery guys always come right to the apartment door to drop off the food so at least I wont have to go too far.
