Subject: Complimentary Theater tickets.... John Catsimatidis

Dear Dear Friend,

A few years ago, John Catsimatidis saw the play "The Little Flower" about Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia which was written and produced by his good friend, well known actor Tony LoBianca.

Catsimatidis found the play to be inspirational on several levels. Mayor LaGuardia so loved New York City, he made such great progress during his years at City Hall as he saw the City through the dark days of WWII.

In fact John Catsimatidis was so moved by the play, he announced his candidacy for Mayor of New York in late January of 2013.

The one man show has returned to New York after successful runs all over the Country, and Mr. Catsimatidis would like to invite you and your guest(s) to see the play as his guest... at no charge.

This is a no strings attached offer to see a great play about New York. The performance will not have political overtones.

Mr. Catsimatidis is inviting several groups across the City; educators, veterans, senior citizens, charities, women's groups, voters and more to come see this great play about the City he loves.. New York City.

I have outlined below several available dates to see this great production. Please select the corresponding RSVP Link with date you would like to see the play and we will confirm your reservation by return email.

Hope to hear from you.
