Jeffrey,

Regardless of whether we find a way to make things work and ever get to do something together, I'd like to thank you for your time and interest. It was good to get to know you. I do have an idea of someone that would come in as President of the firm with me fading into background that would be ideal for you to show to your guys. If it makes sense I'm willing to fade into background until you think I'm commercially viable, while still lending my skills to the effort. I'll be back to you with details later this week or next.

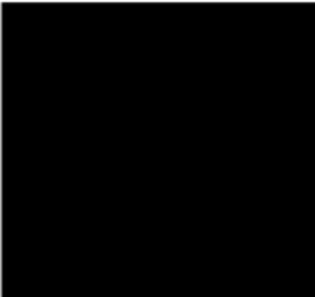

Best regards

Ari
