Subject: John

John is graduating first week of May and he will be looking for a job (hopefully!). I have a connection to Tom Kennan, who owns The Breakers, and got him a great internship there last summer. Tom wants John to apply for a position there, which I think would be good, but so far John hasn't done so. We went to Las Vegas over Christmas and John loved it there. He liked to play Blackjack and loved the hotels. Last week he went to New Orleans for a function and gambled there, and when I spoke to him he said he'd like a job in a hotel also involved in the gambling-entertainment industry. Do you have any contacts in Las Vegas or with gambling? His mother hopes he takes a management trainee job at The Breakers, but I want him to go where his interests lie. He is only interested in 5 Star hotels or a good Las Vegas place.

On another note, I hope all is well with you. Paul is doing better now that his first transfusion is over. Things are well with me.
