attached is email from [REDACTED] to Jeanne (not sure why you were not on email) with her explanation of why David completed his contract rationalizing weekend days worked vs holidays and 5 vacation days

as it has not yet been presented for payment we have not paid his final two weeks ($2,000) which gives you flexibility on how you want to handle

Roy sent a request last night to keep David (see below)

please advise if we should extend contract - if so how long? same rate of $1000 per week?

Hi Rich,

Another question, David's (the carpenter) contract has run up. It appears to me that we still have a great deal of projects left for him to complete. Would it be possible to extend the contract? Looking at what we have going on I would say we need him for at least another three months.
