attached is email from karen to jeanne (not sure why you were not on email) with her explanation of why david completed his contract rationalizing weekend days worked vs holidays and 5 vacation days as it has not yet been presented for payment we have not paid his final two weeks ($2,000) which gives you flexibility on how you want to handle roy sent a request last night to keep david (see below) please advise if we should extend contract - if so how long? same rate of $1000 per week?

Hi Rich,
Another question, David's (the carpenter) contract has run up. It appears to me that we still have a great deal of projects left for him to complete. Would it be possible to extend the contract? Looking at what we have going on I would say we need him for at least another three months.
