Dear Mr Osborne,

I am always hearing excellent things about you from my old NY friends Michael Wolff & Victoria Floethe and then discovered another of your dedicated fans in my even older friend from London, Peter York.

Andrés Velasco, the brilliant 53 year old Harvard-professor economist and recent Minister of Finance of Chile is now running for President and a small gathering of influential supporters will be meeting with him on the 6th March in London to pledge their support, if not donations, to his running campaign.

Might this be the sort of thing to intrigue you ?

If so I will gladly put you in touch with his UK-machine.

Yours sincerely

Adrian Dannatt
