And on that note. . . I got a phone call from BW this morning. When it rains it pours - but in a good way for him. He got a phone call this morning - not from our Principle - but for a possible other job on STT.

He wanted to let me know - he has not made any moves in the other direction because our Principle - an what he may have in mind - would be his first choice.

BW asked me if I thought our Principle was just exploring options or was possibly going to call him. I told him I honestly did not know, but would see if I could find out.

Did you get any feedback - yes, no, maybe, wait? DW
